NUVOLE DI DRAGO

like when you look at the sky at night and see clouds shining, this time, however, they are gold and copper. delicate and airy; a multitude of fine threads of different materials woven into this precise warp.

and just as when it rains at night, the drops can only be seen against the light, as well as the imperceptible thread that supports these light shiny clouds.

CHIAVE DI SOL

not your regular home sculpture

it is no mystery as to why historically gold is considered the most precious of allows. maintaining the charm of the baroque and adding the elegance and simplicity of the line, this musical note gives off luster, dazzling the observer with a warm and mysterious light.
